FOREWORD

Enriched by donations and purchases, Sanskrit MSS at the Banaras Hindu University have steadily grown from modest beginning into the respectable dimension of 10,433. They are deposited at three different places—5695 at the Central Library, 4520 at the Bhārat Kalā Bhavan and 218 at the Sanskrit Mahā-vidyālaya. Written in Śāradā (Old Kashmiri), Grantha (Tāmil Script), Marāṭhi and Beṅgalī, besides Deva-nāgarī and Telugu scripts and addressed to diverse fields of Sanskrit learning, the Sanskrit MSS are a unique embodiment of the best thoughts, both creative and critical, of the master minds in India through ages. Indeed they are an invaluable heritage not only for India but also for the whole world.

In its anxiety to list and catalogue them so that they are made available to the scholarly world, the University requisitioned the services of Pt. Sarvānanda Śāstrī, a Technical Assistant of the Archeological Survey of India, to arrange, list and catalogue the MSS (1805 in all) written in Śāradā script. Śrī Sarasvatī Kānt Paṇḍey, now the Asstt. Librarian at the Advanced Centre of Philosophy, joined him to catalogue MSS in Deva-nāgarī script. But as the task ahead deserved wholetime attention from a person who could do equal justice to the technical as well as the academic aspects of cataloguing, the U. G. C. was persuaded, under the IV Five Year Plan of University, to sanction the post of a Research Assistant.

With effect from 15-2-1968 Dr Ramā Śaṅkar Tripāṭhī, M. A., Ph. D., Vyākaraṇācārya was appointed to the post. He was trained to read Śāradā, Grantha, Beṅgalī, Marāṭhi and Telugu scripts. It was a challenging task. Of the total equisition of 10,433, only 1,279 MSS were so far done justice to. 9154 MSS, lying in heaps, awaited the attention of a scholar like him. I am delighted that with missionary zeal and devotion he has been able to sort out all MSS and catalogue them so that it has now been possible to see the catalogue through the press within such a record time of three years.

The editor is aware that there was scope for improvement. But to rush through the publication of the catalogue for academic and administrative reasons, the editor had to move swiftly with the earnest hope that in view of the importance of the job lapses will be condoned.

The editor puts on record the excellent co-operation from M/s. Tara Printing Works, for printing such a massive stuff within a couple of months with efficiency and quality.

INTRODUCTION

Sanskrit MSS totalling 10,433 are resting at three different places—Central Library, Bhārat Kalā Bhavan and Sanskrit Mahā-vidyālaya. The details of the same are as follows :

The above MSS came to the possession of the University from two sources—donations and purchases. They may be indicated as follows :

Place	Accession No.	Total	Source	Nature of Acquisition

Bhārat Kalā Bhawan	B4026 to B4520	494	Pt. Keśava Prasād Miśra's Collection	Donation by his son Pt. Mahāvīr Prasād Miśra.

I am extremely grateful to Professor Dr S. Bhaṭṭācārya, the Director of Samskrit Studies and Research, the Head of the Department of Samskrit and Pali and the Myaurbhanj Professor of Samskrit, my Guru, at whose feet I have had the privilege to learn the modern technique of research and have derived constant inspiration and guidance in all matters. The planning of the catalogue was his. I have only tried to execute it in my humble way under his expert supervision at every step.

The authorities of the Central Library, of the Bhārat Kalā Bhavan and of the Samskrit Mahāvidyālaya have extended all help at different stages of cataloguing. They all deserve respectful thanks for the same.

I am also so grateful to the teachers of the Department—Professor V. P. Upādhyāya, Dr K. P. Singh, Dr V. D. Miśra and Dr J. S. L. Tripāṭhī for helping me from time to time. Pt. Rām Vallabha Śāstrī, the Research Assistant and Pt. Cintāmaṇi Jhā under the Publication Scheme, have also been all help to me. Śrī Baijnāth Paṇḍey, the research scholar, has diligently prepared the press copy. Besides, the Departmental Office has done its job well.

I am aware of my limitations. Subject to them, I have not spared myself. I now leave the work to the goodwill of the scholarly world.
